

Empowering More Canadians to Use Wireless to do More

April 4, 2016

Raymond Greenwood, President of the Canadian Club of Vancouver and the Board of Directors, cordially invite you to a special luncheon on Monday, April 4, 2016 featuring keynote speaker Bernard Lord, President and CEO of the Canadian Wireless Telecommunications Association. The topic of his presentation will be how Canadian consumer preferences have created our mobile-first world, where smart phones and tablets are the preferred choice to communicate, navigate, inform, shop, bank, work, collaborate, entertain and be entertained.

About the Speaker

As President and CEO of CWTA, Bernard Lord is a champion for wireless telecommunications development in Canada. He firmly believes that wireless telecommunications generate economic growth and prosperity while improving our personal lives and enhancing our communities. Mr. Lord has often been recognized as a national leader and consensus builder. He served two terms as Premier of New Brunswick from 1999 until 2006, and was elected four times as a Member of the New Brunswick Legislative Assembly.

April is Parkinson's Awareness Month

Jean Blake, Chief Executive Officer of Parkinson Society British Columbia, debunks myths about living with the progressive neurological disorder and discusses the services provided by the Society. Although millions of dollars are raised around the world in search of a cure, those who are affected by Parkinson's disease need help now. Parkinson Society British Columbia is the voice of British Columbians living with Parkinson's. Its purpose is to ease the burden through advocacy, education, research and support services.
